Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming

WILL and DEWITT is a series steeped in self-discovery and personal accomplishment, Will and Dewitt proves that sometimes the smallest victories are the greatest. A. Providing viewers with instructions and reinforcement involving hands-on skill and safety learning. Viewers are trying, buttoning, and zipping; using writing instruments; fastening auto seatbelts; playground safety behaviors and more. B. Helping viewers gain appropriate life skills and behaviors, such as giving and following directions, functioning as a member of a team, and making a new friend-intended to aid them to take a meaningful role in their environment. To teach and provide practice to viewers on fundamental knowledge-based learning and skills, including the alphabet, language, numbers, colors, sequences, shapes and directions. C. Giving views a basic understanding of the elements of music, and an appreciation of music itself. This learning is geared to foster creativity and enhance learning in a number of other subject areas, notably including mathematics, language and literature. D. Aiding viewers to learn and employ sound critical thinking and problem solving skills in order to better equip them to handle conflicts and manage everyday situations. E. Encouraging viewers to develop positive personal qualities and pro-social behaviors. Positive personal qualities include kindness, initiative, creativity, and courage. Positive pro-social behaviors include helpfulness, loyalty, cooperation, and leadership.

They're raucously round! Crazy cute! Fantastically funny! Meet the GOGORIKI- a circle of best friends whose zany adventures always result in loads of laughs! This is not your typical cartoon series? not by a long shot. First, the GOGORIKI live in a safe, violence-free world in which the stories revolve around characters and comedy ? not conflict. Second, the stars of the show are animal-types shaped like balls of fun?each one reminiscent of personalities filled with infectious charm to whom we all can relate. And finally, there is no standard antagonist or ?bad guy? ? the energy for each adventure is derived from the crazy antics that result from amusing mishaps and hysterical situations ? with various levels of humor that will appeal to the entire family. Along the way viewers young and old are gently reminded of the values and ideals to which we all should aspire: friendship, loyalty, respect, tolerance, compassion and peace. So go for comedy ? go for adventure - go for characters the whole family will love. Go for GOGORIKI!

Whaddayado (What do you do?) is a weekly half-hour educational series which chronicles real-life stories involving ordinary teens who find themselves caught in perilous and challenging situations. Through dramatic re-enactments, or real-life footage, Whaddayado skillfully documents these events, interviews the participants, and talks to various experts, who explain how best to react. Also, in an effort to help young people make the RIGHT decision at the RIGHT moment, there is a moral dilemma featured in each show. Whaddayado is designed to educate, inform, and entertain children 16 and under (specific target audience is 13-16) about the world around them. Each episode is an educational life-lesson, based on reality. Each episode is closed-captioned and E/I inscribed throughout.
